FRENCH AND GERMANS ARE ON VERGE OF FIERCE BATTLE

Troopers of France Penetrating into Domain of Kaiser and Driving his Soldiers before them—Many Skirmishes are Reported—Expected that a Hard Battle Will Occur Shortly.

GERMANY MOBILIZING 1,000,000 MEN TO TURN TIDE AND CRUSH FRANCE

Austrian Fleet is Rushing to Aid of German Cruisers, Preslau and Goeben, and a Decisive Naval Engagement is Probable as These Vessels are Being Pursued by French and British.

By Associated Press.

London, August 10.—A dispatch to the Daily Telegram from Brussels says that Germany is mobilizing another million men, to include those of the Landstrum, for the invasion of France

By Associated Press.

Paris, August 10.—A dispatch issued last night says that numerous skirmishes are taking place along the entire front of the French army. Dispatches from Vienna say the Montenegrins have bombarded the Austrian fortifications at San Teodo and Cattaro without doing much damage.

Brussels, August 10.—Reports here today say that German cavalry is retreating before large French forces which are said to have cleared considerable territory. The locality of the fighting is not revealed.

Paris, August 10.—According to advices received here the Serbian advance posts have arrived before Visegrad, Bosnia, to which place the Austrian troops fell back when they retired from the Serbian frontier after losing two officers and twenty men killed.

Rome, August 10.—An Austrian fleet of thirteen battleships and sixteen torpedo boats is said to be going at full steam to aid the German cruisers, Breslau and Goeben, which are in the vicinity of the Straits of Otranto. Eight Austrian regiments are reported to have crossed Lake Constance enroute for Alsace.

Brussels, August 10.—The Germans are proceeding into France through Esch, a town of Luxembourg, where they have cut down trees and dug trenches. They have razed the village of Merl.

London, August 10.—A telegram from Charleroi, Belgium, to the Daily Mail dispatched on Sunday night, says a force of French troops arrived in time to participate in a fine success over the German troops investing Liege. The correspondent adds: "The French succeeded in reaching the town of Liege and working behind the Germans. They cut off their retreat. The Germans are said to have lost 8000 killed and wounded, while 1700 of them were captured. I give the figures under reserve."

Geneva, Switzerland, August 9.—delayed—American and British consular officers estimate that about 5000 Americans and 10,000 English were held up in Switzerland owing to the outbreak of war. The Swiss government for the past few days has prevented automobiles leaving the country as it intends to use them if necessary for military purposes. A number of American cars are among those held. The Swiss banks have begun to discount American checks and charge 20 per cent. The American banking agencies have also begun again to take travelers' checks.

Brussels, via Paris, August 10.—The Belgian general staff today says the situation in regard to the Germans has modified but little since Saturday. The German forces however, are said to be going backward before the advance of the French troops, a considerable effective force of which has got into contact with the German advance guard.

Brussels, August 10.—A newspaper here gives the following account of the German occupation of Liege: "The Germans on seeing spaces between the forts open before them entered in small groups through the evening. Among those who entered were General Von Emmich and his staff. The Governor and Burgomaster of the town were told that unless the town and forts surrendered the Germans would bombard. On Friday night seventeen notables of Liege, headed by the Bishop, begged General Von Emmich not to bombard the town. The members of the deputation were detained as hostages and it is not known whether they have been released."

PASSPORT DEMANDED

By Associated Press.

London, August 10.—received at 3:36 p. m.—The French Ambassador at Vienna has asked for his passports, according to the London Daily Telegraph.

ENGLISH CAPTURE GERMAN STEAMER

New York, Aug. 10.—From two sources today came a report to New York that the North-German-Lloyd liner Kron Prinz Wilhelm, has been captured by the British cruiser Essex, and taken to Bermuda as a prize. The liner Naragansett reported having heard a wireless message to this effect and the manager of the Royal Mail steam packet, whose ships run to Bermuda, said he had heard a similar report.

The reports were given some credence here in view of the announcement by the Canadian government made at Ottawa last night, that the Essex had advised the Bermuda station that she was bringing in a prize. The name of the captured vessel was not disclosed in the government announcement.

Since the beginning of the war the Essex has been cruising between Bermuda and Halifax. She was at Halifax last Thursday as the convoy of the Mauretania. If the Naragansett's information be correct the Essex must have run across the Kron Prinz Wilhelm between Thursday night and Saturday morning. The message which the Naragansett is said to have intercepted reads as follows: "Bringing in Kron Prinz Wilhelm as a prize."

BULLETINS

By Associated Press.

London, August 10.—The Prince of Wales left London today to join the Grenadier guard, to which he has been assigned. He will be stationed at Warley barracks in Brentwood.

Paris, August 10.—The Figaro says that two men who arrived from Berlin assert they had witnessed an agitation against the Emperor in the German church. They said they heard cries of "Down with the Emperor" in the streets.

London, August 10.—Reports here indicate that in the fighting at Liege aerial fleets were used by both Belgians and Germans. A huge Zeppelin was destroyed by a Belgian aeroplane, the aviator losing his life. Two Belgian airmen were rendered unconscious by a shell bursting beneath them. They managed to reach the earth in safety.

Brussels, August 10.—It is confirmed that the Germans have ceased their forward movement along the river, Ourthe, which joins the Meuse a mile above Liege.

The Hague, Holland, August 10.—The American Minister, Henry Van Dyke, denies a report published in Berlin that his son has enlisted in the Germany army. Young Van Dyke is helping his father here.

Brussels, August 10.—The Minister of War announced that 40,000 volunteers have presented themselves for service with the colors.

Paris, August 10.—Detachments of the famous Turcos, or native troops from the French colony of Algeria, penetrated into Alsace today.

TOD'S TRIAL IS STRETCHING OUT

By Associated Press.

Columbus, Ohio, August 10.—Such slow progress was made today in the trial in police court here of David Todd, Republican candidate for nomination for governor, on a charge of libeling Fred M. Sayre, Franklin county auditor, by saying Sayre had solicited $5000 for supporting Todd in this county, that hope of ending the trial before the primaries tomorrow was abandoned by counsel for both sides. William G. Denhem, treasurer of Franklin county, was on the stand today.

WAR MAP OF EUROPEAN NATIONS THAT ARE FIGHTING AND WHERE CONFLICT STARTED

This war map shows where the first shots of the conflict were fired and the territory where Germany clashed with Russia on the north and France on the south. It shows the duchy of Luxembourg, which Germany invaded contrary to the treaty of 1867, which made the little country neutral among European nations; also Belgium and Holland, which have been brought into the conflict.

LIEGE FORTS INTACT

Latest Dispatches Assert That Belgians Have Not Lost a Single One of Their Defenses and That All the Forts Are Still Good.

BELGIANS ALSO DENY MEN WERE CAPTURED

All Railroads, Bridges and Tunnels Have Been Destroyed and With the Forts Belgium is Determined to Prevent the Germans From Overrunning the Country.

By Associated Press.

London, Aug. 10.—Messages received here today in official quarters from the Belgian general staff assert that the occupation of the town of Liege by the German troops has not had the slightest influence on the strategic situation. It is declared that so long as the ring of forts around Liege remains intact, as it still is, the guns command three of the principal roads by which the German army can advance. This, it is pointed out, makes it impossible for the Germans under the present circumstances to receive supplies or ammunition.

Every line of railroad between Liege and the German frontier is alleged to have been destroyed and the Belgian troops are said to have blown up every bridge, culvert and tunnel.

The Belgian general staff declares it has received information that the Germans, expecting to take Liege in a few hours, brought with them only sufficient food for a few days and little ammunition, their plan being to rush Liege and make it their base of operation.

The same authority states that the German assertion of the capture of 4000 Belgian prisoners is baseless and adds that not a single Belgian soldier remains in the town of Liege as they are all quartered in the forts.

London, August 10.—The Belgian legation declared at 10 o'clock this morning in connection with the siege of Liege: "Up to the present everything is all right at Liege. The forts are still holding out."

FISHING STOPPED

London, August 10.—The North Sea was again closed to the fishing fleets today. The harbor master at Scarborough received a message from the Admiralty instructing him to tell the masters of fishing vessels not to go out until further notice.

MEXICANS IN HARD BATTLE

On Board the United States Ship California, Aug. 9.—via wireless to San Diego, Aug. 10.—A general attack on Mazatlan was ordered tonight by General Iturbe, commander of the fighting Constitutionalists. Already in possession of the outer line of defenses, the besieging forces advanced to the earthworks on the edge of the city. Fierce hand to hand fighting occurred in the trenches. A Federal gunboat aided the garrison by shelling the attackers.

PREDICTS PEACE IN SIXTY HOURS

Mexico City, August 10.—A high official of the Mexican government, who requested not to be quoted, said today that the transfer of the Federal power in Mexico from Provisional President Carbajal to the Constitutionalists would be made peacefully within the next sixty hours.

ALL IN BUT GERMANY

Washington, August 10.—Secretary Bryan announced today that he had received acknowledgement of President Wilson's tender of good offices from Austria-Hungary, France, Great Britain and Russia.

FRANCE CALLS AUSTRIA; ITALY FEELS LIKE IT

Paris, August 10.—The Austrian Ambassador is awaiting the response of his government to the complaint made by France that Austrian troops were being sent to the French frontier.

President Poincare has taken measures to relieve Italians here who are suffering because of the war.

A dispatch received here from Rome says the Austrian bombardment of Antivario, Montenegro, is considered an offense against Italian interests by the public of Rome.

France has conferred a military medal on King Albert of Belgium.

It was announced that the French losses at Altkirch did not exceed 100 killed and wounded. In the capture of Neulhasen the French seized a large aeroplane factory.

FRENCH SMASHED GERMAN DEFENSE

Alsatian Towns In French Hands.

BOLD CHARGES MADE

Muelhausen and Colmar Seized After Fall of Altkirch.

VICTORS MOVE ON STRASSBURG

French War Office Reports Alsations In a Frenzy of Delight Over the Invasion of the Ancient Province by the French Troops—Losses Heavy on Both Sides in the Fighting at Altkirch—War Minister Felicitates Commander of the French Soldiers.

Paris, Aug. 10.—The French army which is invading Alsace, and which broke through the German defenses at Altkirch Saturday morning and occupied the heavily fortified town of Muelhausen in the afternoon, is reported to have pushed on to Colmar, twenty-two miles beyond Muelhausen. From the details received here the Germans apparently made their stand at Altkirch, where they had thrown up entrenchments, rather than at Muelhausen, the capture of which is reported to have taken only about an hour after the French column arrived before the earthworks.

The French lost 15,000 men and the Germans 30,000, according to the reports which have come from the front. In the fighting which preceded the capture of Altkirch and Muelhausen, the chief losses being at the former town.

Bayonet Charges Made.

The advance guard of the French army arrived before the entrenchments at Altkirch at midnight Friday night. After preliminary skirmishes the French charged at the front line of earthworks repeatedly. Their bayonet charges finally disrupted the German lines and the French broke through and occupied the first line of earthworks. There was a second line behind this, but according to the dispatches received here the Germans did not attempt to defend this second line but retired in disorder toward Walheim and Tagolsheim. A regiment of dragoons pursued them for a way, inflicting severe losses.

While it was yet dark the French entered Altkirch and were welcomed by the Alsatian inhabitants. The advance was resumed at daybreak. Saturday German cavalry was encountered on the outskirts of Muelhausen and was driven back. The French scouts then came upon field works with which the Germans had protected the town and the infantry was brought up. The field works were abandoned at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon and were occupied by the French invaders. The Germans retired to the northward with a French cavalry force harrying their rear guard. The French outposts were established to the north of Muelhausen to prevent a surprise from that quarter.

Move on Strassburg.

The minister of war sent this message to the commander of the French army: "This initial success will have the moral effect of bringing profound satisfaction to the nation. I thank you in the name of the government."

The news of the taking of Muelhausen was received in Paris with the greatest enthusiasm and delight. Crowds filled the streets, reading the bulletins, singing and shouting, to know that an important step has been taken in the task of regaining the provinces lost in the war of 1870.

Colmar, which is unofficially announced to be in French hands, is to the northwest of Neubreisach, to which the Germans are reported to have retired from Muelhausen. It appears that the French army has turned the flank of the Germans and is advancing toward Strassburg, which is believed to be the objective point of the present invasion. Strassburg is forty miles beyond Colmar.

BATTLE IS HOT

Antwerp, Aug. 10.—A dispatch from Maastricht states that the Germans have received reinforcements and completely occupied the Belgian territory bordering on the Dutch province of Limburg. They are now engaged with the Belgian army, which has taken its position near Tongres, eleven miles south of Maastricht.

FRENCH WAR OF REVENGE

Paris, July 10.—General Joffre issued the following proclamation to the people of Alsace: "After forty-four years of sorrowful waiting French soldiers once more tread the soil of your noble country. They are pioneers in a great work of revenge. For them what emotions it calls forth and what pride to complete the work which they have begun at the sacrifice of their lives. The French nation unanimously urges them on and in the folds of their flags are inscribed the magic words, 'Right and liberty; long live Alsace; long live France!'

The victories of the French army of invasion in its first engagements in Alsace have had the great moral effect of giving both the army and the people of France confidence in the statements which have been made by French army authorities that the French army is better trained than that of Germany and that its artillery is more effective.

AUSTRIAN FLEET IN ENGAGEMENT

Rome, Aug. 10.—Reports from Ancona tell of a naval engagement off that port. The identity of the opposing fleets is not known. A burning battleship was sighted from Ancona. Her nationality was not to be ascertained.

A steamer arriving at Ancona reports passing the Austrian fleet of twenty-nine ships, steaming through the Adriatic canal in battle array. Every ship was cleared for action, and a mile ahead of the squadron were two scout ships. Six torpedo boats surrounded the flagship.

The fleet was proceeding at twenty knots an hour with their battleflags hoisted, and it is supposed they were searching for the German cruisers Goeben and Breslau.

It is reported that British ships are in action against the Austrian fleet.

NEWS OF WAR BY WIRELESS

New York, Aug. 10.—The radio station at Tuckerton, N. J., will be ready in a few days to work several hours each day receiving war news directly from Berlin, via the German station at Hanover, according to Theodore M. Lemke, manager of the station.

Mr. Lemke has not yet received a reply from Professor Rudolph Goldschmidt, a friend of the kaiser, to a message sent on Friday asking that war news from the German side be sent to this country. The message, he said, would have to be relayed from Hanover to Berlin, where it would be laid before the foreign office, and then submitted to the emperor. This process will take three or four days, but Mr. Lemke expects an answer soon.

AUSTRIANS ON WAY TO ALSACE

Rome, Aug. 10.—Forty-eight trainloads of Austrian troops have passed through Leopoldsdorfer on the way to Alsace. One report has it that Emperor William himself is hurrying to Alsace by automobile.

CROSSED OCEAN WITHOUT LIGHTS

London, Aug. 10.—Passengers on board the Oceanic, which arrived at Southampton from New York, had their first insight into the meaning of war Wednesday night, when the decks were canvassed in, the port holes shuttered, lights extinguished, and notice was given that as a precautionary measure the ship would sail without lights during the night. Passengers were ordered to do without lights in their staterooms.

CAPACITY LOAD

Plymouth, England, Aug. 10.—The New Amsterdam of the Holland-American line sailed from this port, crowded as she has never been before. From 300 to 400 of her passengers will have to sleep on mattresses in the saloon, the smoking room and the corridors, and not a protest has been heard, everybody being so glad to start home.

SUBMARINE SUNK

London, Aug. 10.—The admiralty has announced that one of the cruiser squadrons of the main fleet was attacked by German submarines. None of the British ships was damaged. One German submarine was sunk. No details were given.

Anda E. Henkle Candidate For County Auditor

Presents to you the following extract from the report of state Examiner T. Q. Bowles:

"First. The records are exceptionally well kept.

"Second. The clerical work is excellent and the office is well systematized.

"Third. The Commissioners' Journal. This record is neatly kept in a type-written volume and is written up-to-date. The record of each meeting is signed by all the commissioners. This county has no commissioners' clerk, and the auditor acting as such.

"Fourth. Abstracts and Duplicates. The duplicates and abstracts of same for year 1910 were carefully audited. Each taxing district was added and checked to the abstract. The work was carried to the settlement sheets and the distribution of the taxes collected checked to the various districts entitled to share in it. No errors were found and the work appears perfect. The February and August settlements were checked. The work on the duplicates is worthy of commendation. The work in the Auditor's office is carefully and thoroughly done. Mr. Henkle's idea of conducting the Auditor's office is that of a modern business man.

"Result: System, neatness, no confusion.

"This official attends to the duties of his office and furthermore, he understands what those duties are.

I am asking for your support at the Primary Election August 11, 1914, for renomination to the office of County Auditor.

I am grateful for your past support and trust that my services will merit a renomination and election.

Yours very truly,
ANDA E. HENKLE.

FRANK C. PARRETT,
Republican Candidate for Representative, General Assembly.

DAVID WHITESIDE.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR RECORDER.

As it is impossible for me to see each voter personally I take this means of soliciting your support at the Primary, next Tuesday, August 11. Having taught in the public schools of Fayette county nine years, and had three years' experience in the mercantile business, I feel that I am competent to discharge the duties of the office, which I seek, in an accurate and business like manner.

I realize that it takes the votes to win, and I hope you will consider me carefully and thoughtfully and finding me worthy and well qualified for the office, trust you will cast your vote for me next Tuesday.

DAVID WHITESIDE.

X A. W. DUFF For Treasurer

For the past two years I have served the people of Fayette County as Deputy in the Treasurer's office. My work has familiarized me with the duties of Treasurer. It has been my aim to treat patrons of the office in the same courteous manner I would expect to receive from a county official. I am a candidate for the Republican nomination for Treasurer in the Primary Election tomorrow and will appreciate your support.

Very truly yours,
A. W. DUFF.

A Word For a Local Candidate

Hon. Chas. A. Reid, of this city, is a candidate in the primary election tomorrow for the Republican nomination for Secretary of State.

Mr. Reid is at present the representative from this county in the General Assembly of Ohio and during the two terms he has served the people of this county in that capacity, he has assumed a conspicuous position. His abilities and his popularity among his fellow partisans in the House of Representatives was acknowledged when they chose him as "floor leader" or spokesman of the minority side in all matters of debate.

Mr. Reid's record as a public servant is absolutely free from any taint of scandal and while he is an avowed partisan in his political activities, and while on practically all matters of legislation, enacted or proposed, the line which marked the boundary of his party circumscribed his activity, yet he has always demeaned himself in such a manner as to command the support of his political friends and hold the respect of his political adversaries.

But it is not so much Mr. Reid's political affiliations or his political opinions to which it is desired, at this time to call attention.

Mr. Reid is a Fayette county man, he grew up in this county, he has practiced his profession in this county. We all know "Charley" Reid. He has been conspicuous in the life of this community during the last half dozen years. He is a good speaker and is generous in responding to the calls of his friends and neighbors. Scarcely any gathering of any consequence where speaking is in order that Mr. Reid is not called on to do at least his share of the speaking and he has always spoken well for and well of Fayette county and Washington.

Now Mr. Reid is seeking the honor of a place on the state ticket of his party in order that he may contest in the general election this fall for a very high and honorable office and the partisans of Mr. Reid owe him their unanimous support. Fayette county Republicans should make a special effort to go out tomorrow and vote for Mr. Reid.

Local pride, in view of the fact that Mr. Reid's private and public life merit an indorsement by his party, should be sufficient to bring out a big vote for Mr. Reid in the primary tomorrow.

First State Wide Primary

Tomorrow is "election day"—the election day when the party voters by their ballots name the candidates for office on the party ticket to be voted at the November election. This is the first state-wide primary in the history of the state—it is the first time in the history of the state that the party voters will actually—not theoretically and not by representatives—name the ticket of their party from top to bottom.

For years the voters of the several political parties cried out and justly so, against boss rule, against a system of naming party candidates which deprived them of any voice in choosing party candidates.

Public sentiment grew in volume against the old boss-ruled convention plan and against the bi-partizan political organizations until the demand for a state-wide party primary could not longer be denied.

It is all up to the party voters to make use of the primary now that they have it. Those who do not care about the candidates on the various tickets, preferring to wait until all candidates are named and then vote as they please—the people who may properly be catalogued politically as independent voters (may their number increase) are under no obligation to participate in the party primary election. But those voters who are interested in seeing to it that the political party with which they are affiliated has a ticket made up of responsible candidates, should go out and vote.

The primary is for party voters, and if they would preserve it and all its wholesome effect for good, they must make use of it.

Tomorrow is the first big test of the state-wide law in Ohio and whether that law remains in the code of election laws, or whether we return to the old days of the farcical mass conventions held and controlled by party-wheelers, interested more in the profits of political offices than they were in seeing to it that the public service was honestly and conscientiously performed, depends, in a large measure upon what action the voters take tomorrow.

Under the present primary laws it is possible for any worthy man to be nominated for office if the people exercise their power while under the old system, it was next to impossible.

Vote for J. W. McCafferty for Representative

Democratic voters should write the name of Mr. McCafferty in the blank space on the Democratic ticket and place a crossmark to the left of the name.

Mr. McCafferty is one of the representative citizens of this county. A man of known principle and convictions. He is in touch with that great army of people who have been so in need of proper representation and which has been so often denied to them.

Vote for J. W. McCafferty—write his name on the Democratic ballot in Tuesday's primary election and place a crossmark to the left—thus guaranteeing to Fayette county Democrats that the official Democratic ballot this fall will contain the name of an ideal candidate for representative.

SHOTS FROM THE DARKNESS KILL DOG AND WOUND WOMAN

Luttrell Neighborhood Aroused Over Cowardly Work of Unknown Man Who Kills Dog in Yard of Jacob Arehart's Residence, and Then Fires Upon and Wounds Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arehart—Crews Picked Up and Arrests May Follow in Short Time.

The Luttrell neighborhood is greatly aroused over an outrage committed at a late hour Saturday night, when some unknown party shot and killed Jacob Arehart's watchdog, and then opened fire upon members of the Arehart family when they rushed out to see what was taking place.

The affair occurred about ten o'clock Saturday night just after Mr. Arehart and his family had retired, and Deputy Sheriff Nelson and Patrolman Baughn immediately left the city for the scene, but were unable to trace the guilty parties further than to a point where they had entered a rig and driven rapidly from the scene.

The men had driven to a point about 100 yards below the Arehart home, and then one of their number walked to the yard fence and throwing a shotgun to his shoulder, opened fire upon the Arehart watchdog which was in the front yard. The man's aim was good, and the animal was killed almost instantly.

Turning upon his heel the man fled down the road, while Vernie Arehart, son of Jacob Arehart, and Mrs.

Anna Mansfield, daughter of Mr. Arehart, and Mr. Mansfield, rushed out to the road to ascertain the identity of the man.

When he thought that he was being pursued the cowardly gun-wielder whirled and fired at the trio at the yard gate, with the result that they were liberally sprinkled with shot, but the only wounds suffered was by Mrs. Mansfield, one shot striking her upon the forehead and another upon the shoulder. The clothing of the two men probably prevented them from being wounded.

The man then fled down the road to the point where his companions were waiting in a buggy, and they then drove like mad down the road and escaped.

The affair caused Mrs. Mansfield to suffer a nervous breakdown, and it was necessary to summon a physician to attend her.

As Mr. Arehart and family are highly respected citizens of the Luttrell neighborhood, and have never been in trouble, Mr. Arehart is at a complete loss to know why such a villainous attack should be made by the unknown man.

A careful investigation is being made, and it is reported that already some promising clues have been unearthed which may make it difficult for two or three men to explain their whereabouts on the night of the trouble.

The authorities are working upon the case, and arrests are likely to follow at any time.

mon delivered by Rev. Wm. Boynton Gage, Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church.

Rev. Gage was just home from his vacation and as glad to be with his people again as they were to welcome him.

The pastor took up the theme of constant conversation and interest, the long expected European war, with the great powers arrayed against each other, and Belgium's would-be neutral soil, drenched with blood.

As the world stands aghast at the dread spectre of war, it is to realize with sorrow that as much as the world has been helped by the genius of Edison and his beneficial discoveries, other geniuses have given the fruits of their intellect and labor to the curse of mankind. Today the soldier marches to warfare followed by the rattle of artillery that will crumble the walls of any fortress save it be the impregnable fortress of Gibraltar. The "horns of the sea" speed to horrible deeds of disaster and the ship in the air destroys in a moment of time. The world sees a war equipment undreamed of in the days of Alexander the Great and Napoleon, but does not feel pride in the achievement nor feel satisfaction in an age in which all guns belch a destruction never known in the history of the world.

Rev. Gage laid stress upon the fact that although all Europe is bubbling over with jealousies and animosities, yet underneath it all there lies a race solidarity, binding together all men.

DEATH CLAIMS YOUNG GIRL

The sorrowful word arrived early Monday morning from Lennoxburg, Ky., that Mr. and Mrs. John F. Markley had lost, through death, their thirteen-year-old daughter, Thelma. Mr. and Mrs. Markley and daughter were called to Lennoxburg two weeks ago by the serious illness of Mr. Markley's mother, who died Sunday, August 2nd.

Just a week later the bright young daughter was claimed by the death angel. She had spoken of not feeling very well when leaving home, but nothing serious was expected and her death found her parents all unprepared for its coming.

Mr. and Mrs. Markley have the utmost sympathy of their many friends in the overwhelming double loss of the past fortnight.

The parents will arrive with the remains in this city from Lennoxburg at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening, via B. & O.

DEATH FOLLOWS CRITICAL ILLNESS

Mrs. Dessie E. Stevenson, wife of Lon Stevenson, died Saturday evening at half past seven o'clock, at the age of thirty-four years.

Mrs. Stevenson's death followed an operation for appendicitis resorted to as the last hope in a desperate case, and the sad word came as a shock to many sympathizing friends.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday morning at ten o'clock at the Memorial chapel in the Washington cemetery.

UNCLE KILLED; ATTENDS FUNERAL

Mr. C. H. Griffiths of the Cherry Hotel went to Greenville Sunday where he attended the funeral of his uncle, Edward Griffiths, who met a violent death on the Mackinaw railroad trestle in that city Saturday morning.

He had been walking along the tracks and was struck by a passenger train when about half way across. He was thrown many rods and death was instantaneous. He was one of the most prominent citizens of Darke county.

OCTA MAN SHOWS FIGHT AND MARSHAL USES GUN

As the result of resisting Bert Rankin, marshal of Octa, Bill Stevens, a resident of Octa, was shot through the right leg between the hip and knee, Saturday night, and later fined for disorderly conduct.

According to reports from Octa, a man named Arthur Sparks was in Octa, and Stevens, who had a grudge at the man, decided that the village was too small for Sparks and himself to be in at the same time, so gathering unto himself some stones he proceeded to shower Sparks in such fashion that Sparks fled for his life.

About that time Marshal Rankin took a hand in the game and when Stevens resisted him the marshal pulled his gun and shot the man through the leg, after which he placed Stevens under arrest and he later faced the court on a charge of disorderly conduct.

Sparks, who was also wanted by the marshal, could not be located. The trouble occurred about nine o'clock Saturday night, and it is claimed that Stevens was not wholly to blame for the trouble which he had with Sparks.

The wound received by Stevens is not a dangerous one unless blood poi-

With Result That Athletics Scamper About the Diamond Like Spring Colts and Final Score Stands 14 to 1—Kentuckians Disappoint Expectant Throng.

About the poorest excuse of baseball offered at the local park in many a day was that of the Dayton, Ky., team Sunday. From the start they didn't have a look-in and the contest, if it might be called such, resembled a track meet, the locals trying to outdo each other in racing around the bases. Among other things the Athletics smashed out three clean home runs and these, together with execrable field work on the part of the Daytonians, were responsible for the lop-sided score of 14 to 1, favoring Washington.

The game was devoid of excitement and many of the fans left before the game had been half played. Strange as it may seem the Dayton team is the same that defeated the locals last season, in one of the closest games ever staged off in Washington.

NOTICE TO DEMOCRATS AFTER KEYS TO Y. M. C. A. LOCKERS

Having been informed late Saturday evening, that many Democrats were contemplating voting for me as their candidate for Common Pleas Judge, I take this means of notifying those, who in good faith intended to vote for me, not only in the primary, but in the fall election also, that I am not a candidate, and will not be, for various reasons, amongst others I might state:

That I came to this city many years ago to practice my profession exclusively, and have never permitted the official bug to get in my bonnet.

That had I desired to be a candidate, I certainly would have entered long ago, and had my name on the Democratic ticket;

That if my course, in urging the nomination of Woodrow Wilson as our candidate for President, and introducing William J. Bryan to a Washington audience, when he spoke in favor of Mr. Wilson, was so heinous, in the eyes of some so-called Democrats, as to forfeit my right to the councils of the party, then would it not follow that this same element would vote against me, when they learn, as they will, that under the same conditions as then I would pursue the same course?

As yet I have no apology to offer for my attitude then taken. That there are others, good men, too, whom I am led to believe, want this nomination, and I am content that they should have it, and I will be found in the ranks, as of old, working in the interests of the Democratic candidates.

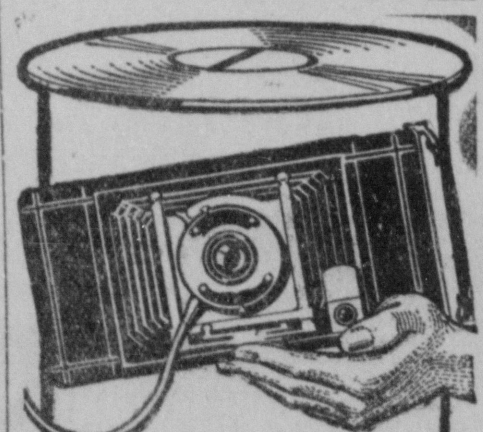

Again thanking my real friends, for their interest in me, I request you not to put my name on your ticket, thereby throwing your vote away, but vote for some other who will enter the campaign.

Yours truly,

FRANK A. CHAFFIN.

BOARD OF HEALTH WAGING WAR ON MOSQUITO PEST

Barrels of Crude Oil Purchased to Spread Over Pools in and Near City in Effort to Eliminate Dangerous Pest—Citizens Urged to Co-operate With Health Board to Obtain Effective Results.

The city Board of Health is now waging active warfare on the unwelcome nocturnal visitors who have been causing almost the entire citizenship to "sit up and take notice" until a late hour each night.

The Board of Health has pronounced the edict that the mosquito must be exterminated, and when local citizens have slaughtered the great horde which now infests the city, relief is in sight, as the Board of Health has ordered five barrels of crude oil which will be spread upon stagnant pools in and near this city so that no more mosquito eggs will hatch the busy little pests.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Health the first steps were taken to eradicate the mosquito, and as a starter the five barrels of crude oil were ordered so that work could begin on Monday of this week.

It is the intention of the Board of Health to spread the oil upon the water wherever a pool is found in Paint creek, and along the creek wherever stagnant pools are found adjoining the bed of the stream.

All persons who have barrels, tanks, ponds or other places about the premises where mosquitoes can hatch, are urged to spread oil over the water and aid the Board of Health in its commendable work of eradicating the deadly mosquito.

One of the greatest dangers from Mosquito bites is the fact that mosquitoes are great carriers of typhoid fever germs. Also germs of other diseases which may be transmitted to the unsuspecting victim by a single puncture of the insect's sharp bill.

The torture of local citizens has been increasing as the insects have increased in numbers, and the action of the Health Board will be welcome news to all.

Berlin, Aug. 10.—Liege is in German hands. Between 3,000 and 4,000 Belgian prisoners are en route to Germany.

Brussels, Aug. 10.—The city of Liege is in the hands of the Germans, but the forts are said to be still holding out.

A peaceful occupation of Liege by the Germans was carried out. The entry into the city was effected through an interval between the forts at Evigne and Fleron. Ten thousand German troops marched into the city.

General Von Emmich immediately issued a proclamation declaring that civilians had fled on his troops and warning the inhabitants that if this is repeated he will bombard the city with his artillery, which is now stationed in the citadel.

There is little likelihood of anything so frightful, as the burgomaster has ordered the people of the city not to carry arms.

During the first hours of the occupation, the Germans remained hidden in the outskirts, but Sunday they marched boldly into the city and took up their quarters in the university, school and other public buildings. They refrained from intruding into private residences. They are conducting themselves well, paying for everything they get in the few shops which are still open. They are giving German money.

German Force Retreating. The German forces in the Luxemburg district of Belgium are reported to be retreating before the advancing French reinforcements. The French troop trains passed through here during the night. It is reported here that the German commissary has failed to provide for the army's stomach, the Kaiser having told his men that they would march through a "smiling countryside."

Many German soldiers and officers surrendered because they were too exhausted to fight, having not been fed for forty-eight hours. This situation is now believed to have been behind the German request of an armistice.

A communication from the Belgian headquarters at Liege says that the German offensive operations have been broken and that there have been no skirmishes for three days. "The enemy remains immovable outside the range of the forts. Their preparations are apparently incomplete. The situation is reassuring," says the message.

Martial law has been proclaimed throughout Belgium.

It is reported that a large French army and the 22,000 British troops which landed in Belgium have joined the Belgians, but it is uncertain whether they will assist in the further defense of the forts of Liege or will prepare to resist the Germans at Namur, where the fortifications are much stronger than those at Liege.

Berlin, Aug. 10.—The following statement is made here: "The civilians of Liege fired upon troops and doctors from ambush. Similar occurrences have been reported from the frontier near Metz. If France and Belgium are preparing for such a war they must expect retaliation. The German troops are accustomed to fight only armed military enemies, and they can not be blamed if in self-defense they give no quarter."

CAPTURE WARSAW?

London, Aug. 10.—A report that the Germans have captured Warsaw is regarded here as a canard. Such a feat is believed to be almost impossible. Warsaw is a first-class fortress and has an immense garrison.

ARMIES DOOMED

Cleveland, Aug. 10.—Bishop James H. Van Buren in a sermon in Trinity cathedral prophesied that a world peace and the disappearance of standing armies will follow the European war.

YANKS STRANDED

Glasgow, Aug. 10.—Fully 1,000 American tourists are stranded here because the sailing of all vessels from this port have been canceled.

BLAME LAID ON AUSTRIA

St. Petersburg, Aug. 10.—The czar's manifesto was read by the president of the duma at a special meeting of that body and was received with cheers. All the members of the duma then joined in singing the national anthem.

Premier Sazanoff delivered a rousing address, in which he told of Russia's unsuccessful efforts toward peace. The premier largely blamed Austria for the war and said that Russia's conscience was clear. After Russia's great efforts for peace, he said, her enemies could not throw upon Russia the responsibility for the conflagration. He said that it was Austria who provoked the internecine war among the Slavs, and added, "but thank God she will not ruin the work of Slav unification. M. Sazanoff said that it was Austria's internal difficulties which had led her to take recourse to the sword. If the German cabinet had so desired, he said, it could have stopped Austria by a word."

BRYAN IN TOUCH WITH AMBASSADORS

Americans Stranded In Europe Will Be Cared For.

Washington, Aug. 10.—Secretary Bryan announced that the American government now was in communication with all its European embassies and legations and that every effort was being made to care for Americans in all parts of the continent.

For many days the state department has been unable to communicate with Ambassador Gerard at Berlin, but communication was established through Copenhagen. Mr. Bryan at once telegraphed inquiring about Archer M. Huntington, president of the American Geographical society, and other Americans reported arrested as spies.

Official dispatches revealed that many Americans had been arrested or temporarily detained in Germany merely on suspicion, that at the first outbreak of hostilities and during the mobilization period, persons who talked English were subject to espionage. One dispatch said many Americans were thought to be acting suspiciously because they displayed cameras and were taking pictures of the trips or scenes incident to the outbreak of the war.

One of the first messages which came from Ambassador Gerard was a formal notification from the German foreign office that most German ports had been mined and requesting that American ships be warned against navigating in any ports which might be the bases of hostilities for foreign forces.

LICENSE BOARD A MONEY-MAKER

Columbus, Aug. 10.—In its 1913 coming annual report the state board license commission will demonstrate that the state board plan of license system has been a success from many standpoints. It will refute the members say, the claim that has been made that the board and the county boards in forty-three wet counties have been a burden on the general taxpayers. Not only will the board claim that it is self-sustaining, but it will turn over to the state a balance of $582,886.94, exclusive of interest, which will amount to an additional $19,000, leaving $600,000 to be paid into the general revenue fund.

NAMES COMMISSION

Columbus, Aug. 10.—The committee which is to investigate the relation between city finances and state finances was named by Governor James M. Cox. On the board are Martin A. Gemmender, member of the Columbus sinking fund; Thomas Coughlin, city auditor of Cleveland; Stewart L. Tatum of Springfield, W. O. Houston of Bellefontaine and Emmett Curtin of Lima.

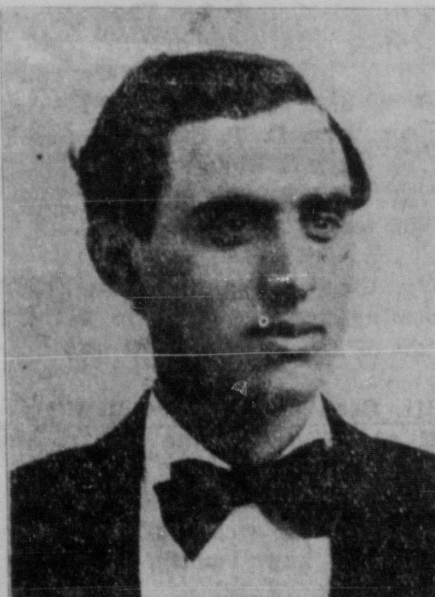

DAYTON LIGHT PLANT

Dayton, Aug. 10.—A petition for the passage of an ordinance authorizing a municipal electric light and power plant is in circulation. The ordinance associated with the petition provides for a bond issue of $500,000.

FEELING SHOWN

Cincinnati, Aug. 10.—The subscription lists of the two local German daily newspapers have greatly increased since the beginning of the foreign war. There is a pronounced disposition to criticize the local English newspapers for their reports of dire defeats of German armies.

Deputy Sheriff ANDREW C. NELSON

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF

To the Voter:
My duties as Deputy Sheriff make it impossible for me to see each of you personally, and I take this means of calling your attention to my candidacy. Believing that my record as Deputy for the two years past merits your consideration and my promotion, I respectfully solicit your vote and support Tuesday, August 11, 1914.

POINTS OF MERIT

If you will compare our Laundry Work with that of others you will find that there are many points of merit in our favor. From the initial dip in water to the final touch of the iron nothing is permitted to touch the clothes except the purest soap and finest starch. Favor us with an order. We will do our utmost to retain your custom.

JESSE B. MALLOW, of Ross County

Mr. Jesse B. Mallow, of Ross county, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for State Senator of the Fifth-Sixth Senatorial District at the ensuing primary election, August 11th, 1914.

This district is composed of the counties of Ross, Highland, Clinton, Fayette and Greene.

For a quarter of a century the Republicans of this Senatorial district have maintained a rule of rotation by giving to each county in its turn the nomination for State Senator. Ross county has always been loyal to this rule, and IT IS NOW Ross county's nomination by the rule—and there is no more reason for breaking the rule now than in the past.

Ross county presents for this nomination one of her best qualified citizens, in the person of Jesse B. Mallow, of Frankfort, who by education and experience, understands the needs and possibilities of the agricultural and commercial interests of this district, for he is a success in business life and successful farmer.

Examination of Fayette County

JULY 1912 TO JAN. 1914.

BY E. K. PARRETT, STATE EXAMINER. A. E. HENKLE HAS SERVED AS AUDITOR DURING THE PERIOD OF THIS EXAMINATION.

RECORDS AND FILES

All records required to be kept by this office are kept in a MOST EXCELLENT MANNER, the greater portion being typewritten.

The Commissioner's journal, kept by the Auditor as clerk of that Board, IS EXCEPTIONALLY WELL KEPT, the subject matter set out in detail, and each action taken by the Commissioners indicated by proper headings in red, making a search of the records easy.

The files of all vouchers and other documents in the hands of the auditor are well kept and all properly docketed, and numbered to correspond with warrants issued.

SETTLEMENTS.

The settlements for the tax years 1911 and 1912 were handled by your examiners.

The several settlement sheets were checked and verified and the distributions followed forward into the ledger account of the taxing districts.

This department of the Auditor's work was found to be PRACTICALLY PERFECT, it being the practice in this office to recheck, verify, and PROVE EVERY STEP in the work from the making up of the Duplicate to the final distribution of the funds.

The highest commendation is due Auditor HENKLE and his efficient office force for their excellent work.

The above is from the State Examiner's report, and is offered to you for your consideration.

I am asking for your support at the Primary Election, August 11, 1914, for RENOMINATION to the Office of County Auditor.

I am grateful for your past support and trust that my services will merit a renomination and election.

Yours very truly,

ANDA E. HENKLE.

MRS. WOODROW WILSON
MARCEAU

SIMPLE RITES MARK FUNERAL

Washington, Aug. 10.—The funeral of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the president, was held in the East room of the White House at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The simple Presbyterian service, without music or singing, was conducted by Rev. Sylvester Beach of Princeton, N. J., and Rev. J. H. Taylor of Washington. It included selections from the fifteenth chapter of First Corinthians and the fourteenth chapter of St. John, short prayers and a benediction.

Outside of members of the Wilson family, only members of the cabinet and their wives, the members of special committees from the senate and house, a few intimate friends and the mast. The White House grounds also present at the services.

While the services were in progress both houses of congress and all government departments were closed and all flags in the Capitol at half mast. The White House grounds also were closed to the public.

Immediately after the services the body was placed on a special train. It will be taken to Rome, Ga., the burial place of Mrs. Wilson's parents. It is understood here that during the trip through the south the people will pay respect by tolling church bells as the special train passes. Christ church in Alexandria, Va., which George Washington attended, has decided on this tribute.

The members of the family were taken to the railroad station soon after the services, the train leaving for Rome at 4:35 o'clock, arriving at Atlanta, Ga., at noon Tuesday and at Rome at 2:30 o'clock. There is a special car for flowers.

PRISON REFORM WORKER NOW MAKING HOME HERE

J. M. Kinney, the Man Who Started Great Reform in Michigan State Prison, Gives Key to His Success—Only Warden Prisoners in Big Prison Ever Loved—Only One Man Sent to Whipping Post in Year.

The man who established the first great reform in the Michigan State Prison—who believes that "a man is a man for a fault and a fault is now making his home in Washington. He is Mr. J. M. Kinney, who during the past few years has been engaged in treating decaying and diseased trees. Mr. Kinney is also a veteran of the great civil war,

MR. J. M. KINNEY,
First Reform Warden of Michigan Penitentiary.

and as a result of his varied experiences is a most interesting conversationalist, but makes no boast of his achievements.

The Michigan state prison was the second in the United States to establish an honor system among her convicts. New York was the first.

Mr. Kinney went to the Michigan prison as a guard. This was in 1895 and for two years he filled the position of guard, making a careful study of prison life.

At the end of two years he was appointed deputy warden under Warden Charles Harley, taking the appointment with the understanding that he himself would have control of the prison which had long held a reputation for brutality and inhumanity, shocking in the extreme.

When Deputy Warden Kinney took charge of the men he at once established an "honor system," and during the one year he was in charge only one man went to the whipping post.

The relation between Deputy Warden and the prisoners was very close, and within a short time after he had taken charge, there was not a man in the prison who would not do the bidding of the man they loved and who had charge of them. Kindness and firmness were used, while brutality was relegated to the past.

The reform was the wonder of the

MAY ASK FOR RESALE OF THE HAYS ESTATE

A motion to set aside the sale of the Hays estate of 144 acres, sold at sheriff's sale Saturday, is now being considered, the grounds being that owing to a report having gotten out that the title to the land was not clear, the land did not sell properly.

Attorneys claim the title to the land is without flaw. The land brought considerably less than its appraised value.

MANY FARM HANDS LOOK FOR PLACES

At the present time there is a great demand for places on the part of farm hands, particularly men with small families seeking such a position.

This is borne out by scores of replies to a classified ad from a Fayette land owner who wanted a good farm hand. Replies have poured in from all points in the county, and from adjoining counties. There is apparently no end to the demand for a change among farm hands with small families.

WAR TAX PLANNED

Washington, August 10.—Congress will be held here to pass a war revenue bill to make up for the loss of revenue caused by the stopping of imports from Europe.

This statement was positively made by Senator Kern, Democratic leader of the Senate.

Several forms of special taxation are under consideration and were discussed Saturday night at an informal conference of Democratic members of the Ways and Means committee. One plan which meets with much favor is to increase the tax on beer 50 cents a barrel. This increase would bring in about $32,500,000 a year. Another suggestion is a stamp tax on deeds, bills of lading, proprietary medicines, etc., similar to the Spanish war tax. Still another suggestion is to levy a special tax on theater tickets, ranging from 2 cents to 5 cents per ticket. This, it is estimated, would add about $5,000,000 a year to Uncle Sam's income.

There is talk of increasing the taxes on whisky and tobacco, but as they are already heavily burdened it is possible they may escape this inflation.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

by Victoria Temple No. 37, Ladies of the Golden Eagle.

Whereas, Through the providence of God we are called to mourn the loss of our companion, Past Templar Emma Smith, and while we deeply mourn her removal from our midst, we humbly submit to the God who giveth and the God who taketh away.

Never again shall we feel her warm handshake or receive her friendly greeting at our temple portal. She awaits us at the heavenly portal at the right hand of Him who said, "Well done thou good and faithful servant. Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

We feel that in her demise we lost a true companion and sister; her family, a loving wife and mother; her neighbors, a true neighbor indeed.

Therefore, be it

Editor Daily Herald:

It has occurred to me that even an editor might welcome a kind word, especially when well deserved. For that reason I am in this manner expressing my appreciation of the splendid news service The Daily Herald is furnishing us. I refer particularly to the Associated Press accounts of each day's events in the European war.

I have observed for several days that The Herald has published all the essential news of the big war and a comparison reveals the interesting fact that the big city morning papers carry exactly the same war dispatches you published the night before. Of course, the difference of six or eight hours in time between Europe and America gives you this advantage, but that fact does not detract from the credit due you for the splendid enterprise shown by your present news service.

Yours truly,
M. E. HITCHCOCK.

FRENCH AND GERMANS ARE ON VERGE OF FIERCE BATTLE

Troopers of France Penetrating into Domain of Kaiser and Driving his Soldiers before them—Many Skirmishes are Reported—Expected that a Hard Battle Will Occur Shortly.

GERMANY MOBILIZING 1,000,000 MEN TO TURN TIDE AND CRUSH FRANCE

Austrian Fleet is Rushing to Aid of German Cruisers, Preslau and Goeben, and a Decisive Naval Engagement is Probable as These Vessels are Being Pursued by French and British.

By Associated Press.

London, August 10.—A dispatch to the Daily Telegram from Brussels says that Germany is mobilizing another million men, to include those of the Landstrum, for the invasion of France

By Associated Press.

Paris, August 10.—A dispatch issued last night says that numerous skirmishes are taking place along the entire front of the French army. Dispatches from Vienna say the Montenegrins have bombarded the Austrian fortifications at San Teodo and Cat-tare without doing much damage.

Brussels, August 10.—Reports here today say that German cavalry is re-treating before large French forces which are said to have cleared considerable territory. The locality of the fighting is not revealed.

Paris, August 10.—According to advices received here the Serbian advance posts have arrived before Visegrad, Bosnia, to which place the Austrian troops fell back when they retired from the Serbian frontier after losing two officers and twenty men killed.

Rome, August 10.—An Austrian fleet of thirteen battleships and sixteen torpedo boats is said to be going at full steam to aid the German cruisers, Breslau and Goeben, which are in the vicinity of the Straits of Otranto. Eight Austrian regiments are reported to have crossed Lake Constance enroute for Alsace.

Brussels, August 10.—The Germans are proceeding into France through Esch, a town of Luxemburg, where they have cut down trees and dug trenches. They have razed the village of Merl.

London, August 10.—A telegram from Charleroi, Belgium, to the Daily Mail dispatched on Sunday night, says a force of French troops arrived in time to participate in a fine success of General Leman's Belgian division over the German troops investing Liege. The correspondent adds: "The French succeeded in reaching the town of Liege and working behind the Germans. They cut off their retreat. The Germans are said to have lost 8000 killed and wounded, while 1700 of them were captured. I give the figures under reserve."

Geneva, Switzerland, August 9.—delayed—American and British consular officers estimate that about 5000 Americans and 10,000 English were held up in Switzerland owing to the outbreak of war. The Swiss government for the past few days has prevented automobiles leaving the country as it intends to use them if necessary for military purposes. A number of American cars are among those held. The Swiss banks have begun to discount American checks and charge 20 per cent. The American banking agencies have also begun again to take travelers' checks.

Brussels, via Paris, August 10.—The Belgian general staff today says the situation in regard to the Germans has modified but little since Saturday. The German forces however, are said to be going backward before the advance of the French troops, a considerable effective force of which has got into contact with the German advance guard.

Brussels, August 10.—A newspaper here gives the following account of the German occupation of Liege: "The Germans on seeing spaces between the forts open before them entered in small groups through the evening. Among those who entered were General Von Emmich and his staff. The Governor and Burgomaster of the town were told that unless the town and forts surrendered the Germans would bombard. On Friday night seventeen notables of Liege, headed by the Bishop, begged General Von Emmich not to bombard the town. The members of the deputation were detained as hostages and it is not known whether they have been released."

PASSPORT DEMANDED

By Associated Press.

London, August 10.—received at 3:36 p. m.—The French Ambassador at Vienna has asked for his passports, according to the London Daily Telegraph.

ENGLISH CAPTURE GERMAN STEAMER

New York, Aug. 10.—From two sources today came a report to New York that the North-German-Lloyd liner Kron Prinz Wilhelm, has been captured by the British cruiser Essex, and taken to Bermuda as a prize. The liner Naragansett reported having heard a wireless message to this effect and the manager of the Royal Mail steam packet, whose ships run to Bermuda, said he had heard a similar report.

The reports were given some credence here in view of the announcement by the Canadian government made at Ottawa last night, that the Essex had advised the Bermuda station that she was bringing in a prize: The name of the captured vessel was not disclosed in the government announcement.

Since the beginning of the war the Essex has been cruising between Bermuda and Halifax. She was at Halifax last Thursday as the convoy of the Mauretania. If the Naragansett's information be correct the Essex must have run across the Kron Prinz Wilhelm between Thursday night and Saturday morning. The message which the Naragansett is said to have intercepted reads as follows: "Bringing in Kron Prinz Wilhelm as a prize."

BULLETINS

By Associated Press.

London, August 10.—The Prince of Wales left London today to join the Grenadier guard, to which he has been assigned. He will be stationed at Warley barracks in Brentwood.

Paris, August 10.—The Figaro says that two men who arrived from Berlin assert they had witnessed an agitation against the Emperor in the German church. They said they heard cries of "Down with the Emperor" in the streets.

London, August 10.—Reports here indicate that in the fighting at Liege aerial fleets were used by both Belgians and Germans. A huge Zeppelin was destroyed by a Belgian aeroplane, the aviator losing his life. Two Belgian airmen were rendered unconscious by a shell bursting beneath them. They managed to reach the earth in safety.

Brussels, August 10.—It is confirmed that the Germans have ceased their forward movement along the river, Ourthe, which joins the Meuse a mile above Liege.

The Hague, Holland, August 10.—The American Minister, Henry Van Dyke, denies a report published in Berlin that his son has enlisted in the German army. Young Van Dyke is helping his father here.

Brussels, August 10.—The Minister of War announced that 40,000 volunteers have presented themselves for service with the colors.

Paris, August 10.—Detachments of the famous Turcos, or native troops from the French colony of Algeria, penetrated into Alsace today.

TOD'S TRIAL IS STRETCHING OUT

By Associated Press.

Columbus, Ohio, August 10.—Such slow progress was made today in the trial in police court here of David Todd, Republican candidate for nomination for governor, on a charge of libeling Fred M. Sayre, Franklin county auditor, by saying Sayre had solicited $5000 for supporting Todd in this county, that hope of ending the trial before the primaries tomorrow was abandoned by counsel for both sides. William G. Denham, treasurer of Franklin county, was on the stand today.

WAR MAP OF EUROPEAN NATIONS THAT ARE FIGHTING AND WHERE CONFLICT STARTED

This war map shows where the first shots of the conflict were fired and the territory where Germany clashed with Russia on the north and France on the south. It shows the duchy of Luxemburg, which Germany invaded contrary to the treaty of 1867, which made the little country neutral among European nations; also Belgium and Holland, which have been brought into the conflict.

LIEGE FORTS INTACT

Latest Dispatches Assert That Belgians Have Not Lost a Single One of Their Defenses and That All the Forts Are Still Good.

BELGIANS ALSO DENY MEN WERE CAPTURED

All Railroads, Bridges and Tunnels Have Been Destroyed and With the Forts Belgium is Determined to Prevent the Germans From Over-running the Country.

By Associated Press.

London, Aug. 10.—Messages received here today in official quarters from the Belgian general staff assert that the occupation of the town of Liege by the German troops has not had the slightest influence on the strategic situation. It is declared that so long as the ring of forts around Liege remains intact, as it still is, the guns command three of the principal roads by which the German army can advance. This, it is pointed out, makes it impossible for the Germans under the present circumstances to receive supplies or ammunition.

Every line of railroad between Liege and the German frontier is alleged to have been destroyed and the Belgian troops are said to have blown up every bridge, culvert and tunnel.

The Belgian general staff declares it has received information that the Germans, expecting to take Liege in a few hours, brought with them only sufficient food for a few days and little ammunition, their plan being to rush Liege and make it their base of operation.

The same authority states that the German assertion of the capture of 4000 Belgian prisoners is baseless and adds that not a single Belgian soldier remains in the town of Liege as they are all quartered in the forts.

London, August 10.—The Belgian legation declared at 10 o'clock this morning in connection with the siege of Liege: "Up to the present everything is all right at Liege. The forts are still holding out."

FISHING STOPPED

London, August 10.—The North Sea was again closed to the fishing fleets today. The harbor master at Scarborough received a message from the Admiralty instructing him to tell the masters of fishing vessels not to go out until further notice.

MEXICANS IN HARD BATTLE

On Board the United States Ship California, Aug. 9.—via wireless to San Diego, Aug. 10.—A general attack on Mazatlan was ordered tonight by General Iturbe, commander of the fighting Constitutionalists. Already in possession of the outer line of defenses, the besieging forces advanced to the earthworks on the edge of the city. Fierce hand to hand fighting occurred in the trenches. A Federal gunboat aided the garrison by shelling the attackers.

VICTORS MOVE ON STRASSBURG

French War Office Reports Alsations In a Frenzy of Delight Over the Invasion of the Ancient Province by the French Troops—Losses Heavy on Both Sides in the Fighting at Altkirch—War Minister Felicitates Commander of the French Soldiers.

Paris, Aug. 10.—The French army which is invading Alsace, and which broke through the German defenses at Altkirch Saturday morning and occupied the heavily fortified town of Muelhausen in the afternoon, is reported to have pushed on to Colmar, twenty-two miles beyond Muelhausen. From the details received here the Germans apparently made their stand at Altkirch, where they had thrown up entrenchments, rather than at Muelhausen, the capture of which is reported to have taken only about an hour after the French column arrived before the earthworks.

The French lost 15,000 men and the Germans 30,000, according to the reports which have come from the front. In the fighting which preceded the capture of Altkirch and Muelhausen, the chief losses being at the former town.

Bayonet Charges Made.

The advance guard of the French army arrived before the entrenchments at Altkirch at midnight Friday night. After preliminary skirmishes the French charged at the front line of earthworks repeatedly. Their bayonet charges finally disrupted the German lines and the French broke through and occupied the first line of earthworks. There was a second line behind this, but according to the dispatches received here the Germans did not attempt to defend this second line but retired in disorder toward Wailheim and Tagolsheim. A regiment of dragoons pursued them for a way, inflicting severe losses.

While it was yet dark the French entered Altkirch and were welcomed by the Alsatian inhabitants. The advance was resumed at daybreak. Saturday German cavalry was encountered on the outskirts of Muelhausen and was driven back. The French scouts then came upon field works with which the Germans had protected the town and the infantry was brought up. The field works were abandoned at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon and were occupied by the French invaders. The Germans retired to the northward with a French cavalry force harrying their rear guard. The French outposts were established to the north of Muelhausen to prevent a surprise from that quarter.

Move on Strassburg.

The minister of war sent this message to the commander of the French army: "This initial success will have the moral effect of bringing profound satisfaction to the nation. I thank you in the name of the government."

The news of the taking of Muelhausen was received in Paris with the greatest enthusiasm and delight. Crowds filled the streets, reading the bulletins, singing and shouting, to know that an important step has been taken in the task of regaining the provinces lost in the war of 1870.

Colmar, which is unofficially announced to be in French hands, is to the northwest of Neubreisach, to which the Germans are reported to have retired from Muelhausen. It appears that the French army has turned the flank of the Germans and is advancing toward Strassburg, which is believed to be the objective point of the present invasion. Strassburg is forty miles beyond Colmar.

BATTLE IS HOT

Antwerp, Aug. 10.—A dispatch from Maastricht states that the Germans have received reinforcements and completely occupied the Belgian territory bordering on the Dutch province of Limburg. They are now engaged with the Belgian army, which has taken its position near Tongres, eleven miles south of Maastricht.

FRENCH WAR OF REVENGE

Paris, July 10.—General Joffre issued the following proclamation to the people of Alsace: "After forty-four years of sorrowful waiting French soldiers once more tread the soil of your noble country. They are pioneers in a great work of revenge. For them what emotions it calls forth and what pride to complete the work which they have begun at the sacrifice of their lives. The French nation unanimously urges them on and in the folds of their flags are inscribed the magic words, 'Right and liberty; long live Alsace; long live France!'"

The victories of the French army of invasion in its first engagements in Alsace have had the great moral effect of giving both the army and the people of France confidence in the statements which have been made by French army authorities that the French army is better trained than that of Germany and that its artillery is more effective.

AUSTRIAN FLEET IN ENGAGEMENT

Rome, Aug. 10.—Reports from Ancona tell of a naval engagement off that port. The identity of the opposing fleets is not known. A burning battleship was sighted from Ancona. Her nationality was not to be ascertained.

A steamer arriving at Ancona reports passing the Austrian fleet of twenty-nine ships, steaming through the Otranto canal in battle array. Every ship was cleared for action, and a mile ahead of the squadron were two scout ships. Six torpedo boats surrounded the flagship.

The fleet was proceeding at twenty knots an hour with their battleflags hoisted, and it is supposed they were searching for the German cruisers Goeben and Breslau.

It is reported that British ships are in action against the Austrian fleet.

NEWS OF WAR BY WIRELESS

New York, Aug. 10.—The radio station at Tuckerton, N. J., will be ready in a few days to work several hours each day receiving war news directly from Berlin, via the German station at Hanover, according to Theodore M. Lemke, manager of the station.

Mr. Lemke has not yet received a reply from Professor Rudolph Goldschmidt, a friend of the kaiser, to a message sent on Friday asking that war news from the German side be sent to this country. The message, he said, would have to be relayed from Hanover to Berlin, where it would be laid before the foreign office, and then submitted to the emperor. This process will take three or four days, but Mr. Lemke expects an answer soon.

AUSTRIANS ON WAY TO ALSACE

Rome, Aug. 10.—Forty-eight trainloads of Austrian troops have passed through Leopoldsdorfer on the way to Alsace. One report has it that Emperor William himself is hurrying to Alsace by automobile.

CROSSED OCEAN WITHOUT LIGHTS

London, Aug. 10.—Passengers on board the Oceanic, which arrived at Southampton from New York, had their first insight into the meaning of war Wednesday night, when the decks were canvassed in, the port holes shuttered, lights extinguished, and notice was given that as a precautionary measure the ship would sail without lights during the night. Passengers were ordered to do without lights in their staterooms.

CAPACITY LOAD

Plymouth, England, Aug. 10.—The New Amsterdam of the Holland-American line sailed from this port, crowded as she has never been before. From 300 to 400 of her passengers will have to sleep on mattresses in the saloon, the smoking room and the corridors, and not a protest has been heard, everybody being so glad to start home.

SUBMARINE SUNK

London, Aug. 10.—The admiralty has announced that one of the cruiser squadrons of the main fleet was attacked by German submarines. None of the British ships was damaged. One German submarine was sunk. No details were given.

Anda E. Henkle Candidate For County Auditor

Presents to you the following extract from the report of state:

Examiner T. Q. Bowles:

"First. The records are exceptionally well kept.

"Second. The clerical work is excellent and the office is well systematized.

"Third. The Commissioners' Journal. This record is neatly kept in a type-written volume and is written up-to-date. The record of each meeting is signed by all the commissioners. This county has no commissioners' clerk, and the auditor acting as such.

"Fourth. Abstracts and Duplicates. The duplicates and abstracts of same for year 1910 were carefully audited. Each taxing district was added and checked to the abstract. The work was carried to the settlement sheets and the distribution of the taxes collected checked to the various districts entitled to share in it. No errors were found and the work appears perfect. The February and August settlements were checked. The work on the duplicates is worthy of commendation. The work in the Auditor's office is carefully and thoroughly done. Mr. Henkle's idea of conducting the Auditor's office is that of a modern business man.

"Result: System, neatness, no confusion.

"This official attends to the duties of his office and furthermore, he understands what those duties are.

I am asking for your support at the Primary Election August 11, 1914, for renomination to the office of County Auditor.

I am grateful for your past support and trust that my services will merit a renomination and election.

Yours very truly,

ANDA E. HENKLE.

FRANK C. PARRETT,
Republican Candidate for Representative, General Assembly.

DAVID WHITESIDE.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR RECORDER.

As it is impossible for me to see each voter personally I take this means of soliciting your support at the Primary, next Tuesday, August 11.

Having taught in the public schools of Fayette county nine years, and had three years' experience in the mercantile business, I feel that I am competent to discharge the duties of the office, which I seek, in an accurate and business like manner.

I realize that it takes the votes to win, and I hope you will consider me carefully and thoughtfully and finding me worthy and well qualified for the office, trust you will cast your vote for me next Tuesday.

DAVID WHITESIDE.

X A. W. DUFF For Treasurer

For the past two years I have served the people of Fayette County as Deputy in the Treasurer's office. My work has familiarized me with the duties of Treasurer. It has been my aim to treat patrons of the office in the same courteous manner I would expect to receive from a county official. I am a candidate for the Republican nomination for Treasurer in the Primary Election tomorrow and will appreciate your support.

Very truly yours,

A. W. DUFF.

A Word For a Local Candidate

Hon. Chas. A. Reid, of this city, is a candidate in the primary election tomorrow for the Republican nomination for Secretary of State.

Mr. Reid is at present the representative from this county in the General Assembly of Ohio and during the two terms he has served the people of this county in that capacity, he has assumed a conspicuous position. His abilities and his popularity among his fellow partisans in the House of Representatives was acknowledged when they chose him as "floor leader" or spokesman of the minority side in all matters of debate.

Mr. Reid's record as a public servant is absolutely free from any taint of scandal and while he is an avowed partisan in his political activities, and while on practically all matters of legislation, enacted or proposed, the line which marked the boundary of his party circumscribed his activity, yet he has always demeaned himself in such a manner as to command the support of his political friends and hold the respect of his political adversaries.

But it is not so much Mr. Reid's political affiliations or his political opinions to which it is desired, at this time to call attention.

Mr. Reid is a Fayette county man, he grew up in this county, he has practiced his profession in this county. We all know "Charley" Reid. He has been conspicuous in the life of this community during the last half dozen years. He is a good speaker and is generous in responding to the calls of his friends and neighbors. Scarcely any gathering of any consequence where speaking is in order that Mr. Reid is not called on to do at least his share of the speaking and he has always spoken well for and well of Fayette county and Washington.

Now Mr. Reid is seeking the honor of a place on the state ticket of his party in order that he may contest in the general election this fall for a very high and honorable office and the partisans of Mr. Reid owe him their unanimous support. Fayette county Republicans should make a special effort to go out tomorrow and vote for Mr. Reid.

Local pride, in view of the fact that Mr. Reid's private and public life merit an indorsement by his party, should be sufficient to bring out a big vote for Mr. Reid in the primary tomorrow.

First State Wide Primary

Tomorrow is "election day"—the election day when the party voters by their ballots name the candidates for office on the party ticket to be voted at the November election. This is the first state-wide primary in the history of the state—it is the first time in the history of the state that the party voters will actually—not theoretically and not by representatives—name he ticket of their party from top to bottom.

For years the voters of the several political parties cried out and justly so, against boss rule, against a system of naming party candidates which deprived them of any voice in choosing party candidates.

Public sentiment grew in volume against the old boss-ruled convention plan and against the bi-partizan political organizations until the demand for a state-wide party primary could not longer be denied.

It is all up to the party voters to make use of the primary now that they have it. Those who do not care about the candidates on the various tickets, preferring to wait until all candidates are named and then vote as they please—the people who may properly be catalogued politically as independent voters (may their number increase) are under no obligation to participate in the party primary election. But those voters who are interested in seeing to it that the political party with which they are affiliated has a ticket made up of responsible candidates, should go out and vote.

The primary is for party voters, and if they would preserve it and all its wholesome effect for good, they must make use of it.

Tomorrow is the first big test of the state-wide law in Ohio and whether that law remains in the code of election laws, or whether we return to the old days of the farcical mass conventions held and controlled by party heelers, interested more in the profits of political offices than they were in seeing to it that the public service was honestly and conscientiously performed, depends, in a large measure upon what action the voters take tomorrow.

Under the present primary laws it is possible for any worthy man to be nominated for office if the people exercise their power while under the old system, it was next to impossible.

Vote for J. W. McCafferty for Representative

Democratic voters should write the name of Mr. McCafferty in the blank space on the Democratic ticket and place a crossmark to the left of the name.

Mr. McCafferty is one of the representative citizens of this county. A man of known principle and convictions. He is in touch with that great army of people who have been so in need of proper representation and which has been so often denied to them.

Vote for J. W. McCafferty—write his name on the Democratic ballot in Tuesday's primary election and place a crossmark to the left—thus guaranteeing to Fayette county Democrats that the official Democratic ballot this fall will contain the name of an ideal candidate for representative.

SHOTS FROM THE DARKNESS KILL DOG AND WOUND WOMAN

Luttrell Neighborhood Aroused Over Cowardly Work of Unknown Man Who Kills Dog in Yard of Jacob Arehart's Residence, and Then Fires Upon and Wounds Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arehart—Clews Picked Up and Arrests May Follow in Short Time.

The Luttrell neighborhood is greatly aroused over an outrage committed at a late hour Saturday night, when some unknown party shot and killed Jacob Arehart's watchdog, and then opened fire upon members of the Arehart family when they rushed out to see what was taking place.

The affair occurred about ten o'clock Saturday night just after Mr. Arehart and his family had retired, and Deputy Sheriff Nelson and Patrolman Baughn immediately left the city for the scene, but were unable to trace the guilty parties further than to a point where they had entered a rig and driven rapidly from the scene.

The men had driven to a point about 100 yards below the Arehart home, and then one of their number walked to the yard fence and throwing a shotgun to his shoulder, opened fire upon the Arehart watchdog which was in the front yard. The man's aim was good, and the animal was killed almost instantly.

Turning upon his heel the man fled down the road, while Vernie Arehart, son of Jacob Arehart, and Mrs.

Anna Mansfield, daughter of Mr. Arehart, and Mr. Mansfield, rushed out to the road to ascertain the identity of the man.

When he thought that he was being pursued the cowardly gun-wielder whirled and fired at the trio at the yard gate, with the result that they were liberally sprinkled with shot, but the only wounds suffered was by Mrs. Mansfield, one shot striking her upon the forehead and another upon the shoulder. The clothing of the two men probably prevented them from being wounded.

The man then fled down the road to the point where his companions were waiting in a buggy, and they then drove like mad down the road and escaped.

The affair caused Mrs. Mansfield to suffer a nervous breakdown, and it was necessary to summon a physician to attend her.

As Mr. Arehart and family are highly respected citizens of the Luttrell neighborhood, and have never been in trouble, Mr. Arehart is at a complete loss to know why such a villainous attack should be made by the unknown man.

A careful investigation is being made, and it is reported that already some promising clews have been unearthed which may make it difficult for two or three men to explain their whereabouts on the night of the trouble.

The authorities are working upon the case, and arrests are likely to follow at any time.

mon delivered by Rev. Wm. Boynton Gage, Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church.

Rev. Gage was just home from his vacation and as glad to be with his people again as they were to welcome him.

The pastor took up the theme of constant conversation and interest, the long expected European war, with the great powers arrayed against each other, and Belgium's would-be neutral soil, drenched with blood.

As the world stands aghast at the dread spectre of war, it is to realize with sorrow that as much as the world has been helped by the genius of Edison and his beneficial discoveries, other geniuses have given the fruits of their intellect and labor to the curse of mankind. Today the soldier marches to warfare followed by the rattle of artillery that will crumble the walls of any fortress save it be the impregnable fortress of Gibraltar. The "horns of the sea" speed to horrible deeds of disaster and the ship in the air destroys in a moment of time. The world sees a war equipment undreamed of in the days of Alexander the Great and Napoleon, but does not feel pride in the achievement nor feel satisfaction in an age in which all guns belch a destruction never known in the history of the world.

Rev. Gage laid stress upon the fact that although all Europe is bubbling over with jealousies and animosities, yet underneath it all there lies a race solidarity, binding together all men.

DEATH CLAIMS YOUNG GIRL

The sorrowful word arrived early Monday morning from Lennoxburg, Ky., that Mr. and Mrs. John F. Markley had lost, through death, their thirteen-year-old daughter, Thelma.

Mr. and Mrs. Markley and daughter were called to Lennoxburg two weeks ago by the serious illness of Mr. Markley's mother, who died Sunday, August 2nd.

Just a week later the bright young daughter was claimed by the death angel. She had spoken of not feeling very well when leaving home, but nothing serious was expected and her death found her parents all unprepared for its coming.

Mr. and Mrs. Markley have the utmost sympathy of their many friends in the overwhelming double loss of the past fortnight.

The parents will arrive with the remains in this city from Lennoxburg at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening, via B. & O.

DEATH FOLLOWS CRITICAL ILLNESS

Mrs. Dessie E. Stevenson, wife of Lon Stevenson, died Saturday evening at half past seven o'clock, at the age of thirty-four years.

Mrs. Stevenson's death followed an operation for appendicitis resorted to as the last hope in a desperate case, and the sad word came as a shock to many sympathizing friends.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday morning at ten o'clock at the Memorial chapel in the Washington cemetery.

UNCLE KILLED; ATTENDS FUNERAL

Mr. C. H. Griffiths of the Cherry Hotel went to Greenville Sunday where he attended the funeral of his uncle, Edward Griffiths, who met a violent death on the Mackinaw railroad trestle in that city Saturday morning.

He had been walking along the tracks and was struck by a passenger train when about half way across. He was thrown many rods and death was instantaneous. He was one of the most prominent citizens of Darke county.

OCTA MAN SHOWS FIGHT AND MARSHAL USES GUN

As the result of resisting Bert Rankin, marshal of Octa, Bill Stevens, a resident of Octa, was shot through the right leg between the hip and knee, Saturday night, and later fined for disorderly conduct.

According to reports from Octa, a man named Arthur Sparks was in Octa, and Stevens, who had a grudge at the man, decided that the village was too small for Sparks and himself to be in at the same time, so gathering unto himself some stones he proceeded to shower Sparks in such fashion that Sparks fled for his life.

About that time Marshal Rankin took a hand in the game and when Stevens resisted him the marshal pulled his gun and shot the man through the leg, after which he placed Stevens under arrest and he later faced the court on a charge of disorderly conduct.

Sparks, who was also wanted by the marshal, could not be located. The trouble occurred about nine o'clock Saturday night, and it is claimed that Stevens was not wholly to blame for the trouble which he had with Sparks.

The wound received by Stevens is not a dangerous one unless blood poi-

With Result That Athletics Scamper About the Diamond Like Spring Colts and Final Score Stands 14 to 1—Kentuckians Disappoint Expectant Throng.

About the poorest excuse of baseball offered at the local park in many a day was that of the Dayton, Ky., team Sunday. From the start they didn't have a look-in and the contest, if it might be called such, resembled a track meet, the locals trying to outdo each other in racing around the bases. Among other things the Athletics smashed out three clean home runs and these, together with execrable field work on the part of the Daytonians, were responsible for the lop-sided score of 14 to 1, favoring Washington.

The game was devoid of excitement and many of the fans left before the game had been half played. Strange as it may seem the Dayton team is the same that defeated the locals last season, in one of the closest games ever staged off in Washington.

NOTICE TO DEMOCRATS AFTER KEYS TO Y. M. C. A. LOCKERS

Having been informed late Saturday evening, that many Democrats were contemplating voting for me as their candidate for Common Pleas Judge, I take this means of notifying those, who in good faith intended to vote for me, not only in the primary, but in the fall election also, that I am not a candidate, and will not be, for various reasons, amongst others I might state:

That I came to this city many years ago to practice my profession exclusively, and have never permitted the official bug to get in my bonnet.

That had I desired to be a candidate, I certainly would have entered long ago, and had my name on the Democratic ticket;

That if my course, in urging the nomination of Woodrow Wilson as our candidate for President, and introducing William J. Bryan to a Washington audience, when he spoke in favor of Mr. Wilson, was so heinous, in the eyes of some so-called Democrats, as to forfeit my right to the councils of the party, then would it not follow that this same element would vote against me, when they learn, as they will, that under the same conditions as then I would pursue the same course?

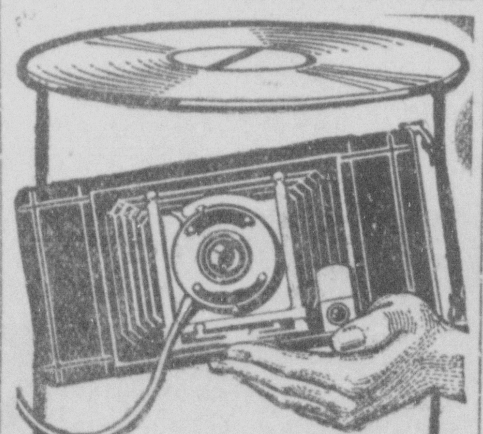

As yet I have no apology to offer for my attitude then taken. That there are others, good men, too, whom I am led to believe, want this nomination, and I am content that they should have it, and I will be found in the ranks, as of old, working in the interests of the Democratic candidates.

Again thanking my real friends, for their interest in me, I request you not to put my name on your ticket, thereby throwing your vote away, but vote for some other who will enter the campaign.

Yours truly,
FRANK A. CHAFFIN.

BOARD OF HEALTH WAGING WAR ON MOSQUITO PEST

Barrels of Crude Oil Purchased to Spread Over Pools in and Near City in Effort to Eliminate Dangerous Pest—Citizens Urged to Co-operate With Health Board to Obtain Effective Results.

The city Board of Health is now waging active warfare on the unwelcome nocturnal visitors who have been causing almost the entire citizenship to "sit up and take notice" until a late hour each night.

The Board of Health has pronounced the edict that the mosquito must be exterminated, and when local citizens have slaughtered the great horde which infests the city, relief is in sight, as the Board of Health has ordered five barrels of crude oil which will be spread upon stagnant pools in and near this city so that no more mosquito eggs will hatch the busy little pests.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Health the first steps were taken to eradicate the mosquito, and as a starter the five barrels of crude oil were ordered so that work could begin on Monday of this week.

It is the intention of the Board of Health to spread the oil upon the water wherever a pool is found in Paint creek, and along the creek wherever stagnant pools are found adjoining the bed of the stream.

All persons who have barrels, tanks, ponds or other places about the premises where mosquitoes can hatch, are urged to spread oil over the water and aid the Board of Health in its commendable work of eradicating the deadly mosquito.

One of the greatest dangers from Mosquito bites is the fact that mosquitoes are great carriers of typhoid fever germs. Also germs of other diseases which may be transmitted to the unsuspecting victim by a single puncture of the insect's sharp bill.

The torture of local citizens has been increasing as the insects have increased in numbers, and the action of the Health Board will be welcome news to all.

In Social Circles

Mrs. J. W. Hughey entertained with an enjoyable family dinner Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Murray, of Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ireland and Mrs. M. and Mrs. Mart Hughey and Mrs. M. and Mrs. Brooks were the additional guests.

In honor of several out of town friends a party was given at Deer Creek by a number of young people. A picnic supper was taken to Deer creek, and the party remained at the Soldiers Home for the band concert. After the concert an informal dance was given at the Beta Phi Sigma chapter house. The party was composed of Misses Jean Fitzgerald, Jean Weaver, Dorothy Saxton, Lora Elm, Carrie Willis, Betty May and Mary Alice Culhan, all of Washington Court House, O., and Miss Charlotte Harper of Lafontaine, who is having a house party for this group of Ohio girls, and Frank Wheeler, Jack Phillips, Arthur Muller, Pearl Gessler, Charles Love, Noble Crane, Ted Rademaker and Charles Cunnell.—Marion Chronicle.

PLEASANT CASE DISMISSED TODAY

Belle Pleasant faced Mayor Coffey Monday morning, on an affidavit filed by Joe Hargrave, charging her with disorderly conduct.

The charge grew out of a neighborhood quarrel, with chickens running at large at the bottom of the trouble.

After the case was investigated by Mayor Coffey the case was dismissed.

CARD OF THANKS.

I desire to express my heartfelt thanks to all friends and neighbors for their kind favors and sympathy, during the sickness and death of my wife, Emma Smith; also to Victor Temple No. 37, Ladies of Golden Eagle. Especially do I thank the donors of beautiful floral offerings.

GERMANS TAKE CITY OF LIEGE

Ten Thousand Soldiers Invest City.

ATTACK IS SUSPENDED

Forts Around the Town Reported Still Holding Out.

WARNING ISSUED TO CIVILIANS

German Commander Says Vigorous Reprisals Will Follow Any Hostile Acts Against His Troops—British and French Soldiers Join Belgians to Oppose Advance of Kaiser's Men. Next Engagement Likely at Lamur, War Bulletins.

Berlin, Aug. 10.—Liege is in German hands. Between 3,000 and 4,000 Belgian prisoners are en route to Germany.

Brussels, Aug. 10.—The city of Liege is in the hands of the Germans, but the forts are said to be still holding out.

A peaceful occupation of Liege by the Germans was carried out. The entry into the city was effected through an interval between the forts at Evigne and Feron. Ten thousand German troops marched into the city.

General Von Emmich immediately issued a proclamation declaring that civilians had fled on his troops and warning the inhabitants that if this is repeated he will bombard the city with his artillery, which is now stationed in the citadel.

There is little likelihood of anything so frightful, as the burgomaster has ordered the people of the city not to carry arms.

During the first hours of the occupation, the Germans remained hidden in the outskirts, but Sunday they marched boldly into the city and took up their quarters in the university, school and other public buildings. They refrained from intruding into private residences. They are conducting themselves well, paying for everything they get in the few shops which are still open. They are giving German money.

Examination of Fayette County

JULY 1912 TO JAN. 1914.

BY E. K. PARRETT, STATE EXAMINER.

A. E. HENKLE HAS SERVED AS AUDITOR DURING THE PERIOD OF THIS EXAMINATION.

RECORDS AND FILES

All records required to be kept by this office are kept in a MOST EXCELLENT MANNER, the greater portion being typewritten.

The Commissioner's journal, kept by the Auditor as clerk of that Board, IS EXCEPTIONALLY WELL KEPT, the subject matter set out in detail, and each action taken by the Commissioners indicated by proper headings in red, making a search of the records easy.

The files of all vouchers and other documents in the hands of the auditor are well kept and all properly docketed, and numbered to correspond with warrants issued.

SETTLEMENTS.

The settlements for the tax years 1911 and 1912 were handled by your examiners.

The several settlement sheets were checked and verified and the distributions followed forward into the ledger account of the taxing districts.

This department of the Auditor's work was found to be PRACTICALLY PERFECT, it being the practice in this office to recheck, verify, and PROVE EVERY STEP in the work from the making up of the Duplicate to the final distribution of the funds.

The highest commendation is due Auditor HENKLE and his efficient office force for their excellent work.

The above is from the State Examiner's report, and is offered to you for your consideration.

I am asking for your support at the Primary Election, August 11, 1914, for RENOMINATION to the Office of County Auditor.

I am grateful for your past support and trust that my services will merit a renomination and election.

Yours very truly,

ANDA E. HENKLE.

BLAME LAID ON AUSTRIA

St. Petersburg, Aug. 10.—The czar's manifesto was read by the president of the duma at a special meeting of that body and was received with cheers. All the members of the duma then joined in singing the national anthem.

Premier Sazanoff delivered a rousing address, in which he told of Russia's unsuccessful efforts toward peace. The premier largely blamed Austria for the war and said that Russia's conscience was clear. After Russia's great efforts for peace, he said, her enemies could not throw upon Russia the responsibility for the conflagration. He said that it was Austria who provoked the internecine war among the Slavs, and added, "but thank God she will not ruin the work of Slav unification. M. Sazanoff said that it was Austria's internal difficulties which had led her to take recourse to the sword. If the German cabinet had so desired, he said, it could have stopped Austria by a word.

BRYAN IN TOUCH WITH AMBASSADORS

Americans Stranded In Europe Will Be Cared For.

Washington, Aug. 10.—Secretary Bryan announced that the American government now was in communication with all its European embassies and legations and that every effort was being made to care for Americans in all parts of the continent.

For many days the state department has been unable to communicate with Ambassador Gerard at Berlin, but communication was established through Copenhagen. Mr. Bryan at once telegraphed inquiring about Archer M. Huntington, president of the American Geographical society, and other Americans reported arrested as spies.

Official dispatches revealed that many Americans had been arrested or temporarily detained in Germany merely on suspicion, that at the first outbreak of hostilities and during the mobilization period, persons who talked English were subject to espionage. One dispatch said many Americans were thought to be acting suspiciously because they displayed cameras and were taking pictures of the trips or scenes incident to the outbreak of the war.

One of the first messages which came from Ambassador Gerard was a formal notification from the German foreign office that most German ports had been mined and requesting that American ships be warned against navigating in any ports which might be the bases of hostilities for foreign forces.

LICENSE BOARD A MONEY-MAKER

Columbus, Aug. 10.—In its forty-third annual report the state board of license commission will demonstrate that the state board plan of license system has been a success from many standpoints. It will refute the members say, the claim that has been made that the board and the county boards in forty-three wet counties have been a burden on the general taxpayers. Not only will the board claim that it is self-sustaining, but it will turn over to the state a balance of $583,886.94, exclusive of interest, which will amount to an additional $19,000, leaving $600,000 to be paid into the general revenue fund.

NAMES COMMISSION

Columbus, Aug. 10.—The committee which is to investigate the relation between city finances and state finances was named by Governor James M. Cox. On the board are Martin A. Genuender, member of the Columbus sinking fund; Thomas Coughlin, city auditor of Cleveland; Stewart L. Tatum of Springfield, W. O. Houston of Bellefontaine and Emmett Curtin of Lima.

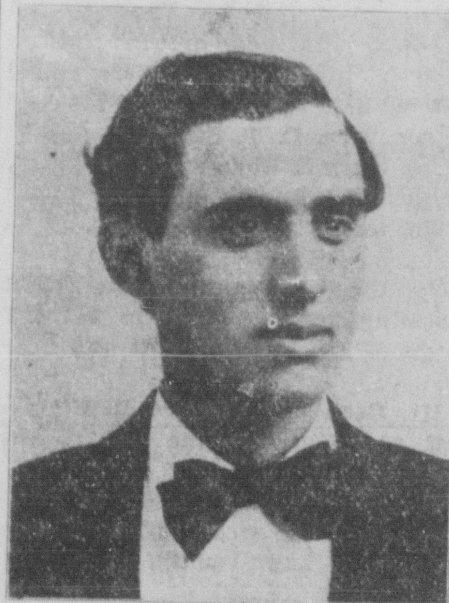

DAYTON LIGHT PLANT

Dayton, Aug. 10.—A petition for the passage of an ordinance authorizing a municipal electric light and power plant is in circulation. The ordinance associated with the petition provides for a bond issue of $500,000.

FEELING SHOWN

Cincinnati, Aug. 10.—The subscription lists of the two local German daily newspapers have greatly increased since the beginning of the foreign war. There is a pronounced disposition to criticize the local English newspapers for their reports of dire defeats of German armies.

JESSE B. MALLOW, of Ross County

Mr. Jesse B. Mallow, of Ross county, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for State Senator of the Fifth-Sixth Senatorial District at the ensuing primary election, August 11th, 1914.

This district is composed of the counties of Ross, Highland, Clinton, Fayette and Greene.

For a quarter of a century the Republicans of this Senatorial district have maintained a rule of rotation by giving to each county in its turn the nomination for State Senator. Ross county has always been loyal to this rule, and IT IS NOW Ross county's nomination by the rule—and there is no more reason for breaking the rule now than in the past.

Ross county presents for this nomination one of her best qualified citizens, in the person of Jesse B. Mallow, of Frankfort, who by education and experience, understands the needs and possibilities of the agricultural and commercial interests of this district, for he is a success in business life and successful farmer.

MRS. WOODROW WILSON
MARCEAU

MARK FUNERAL

Washington, Aug. 10.—The funeral of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the president, was held in the East room of the White House at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The simple Presbyterian service, without music or singing, was conducted by Rev. Sylvester Beach of Princeton, N. J., and Rev. J. H. Taylor of Washington. It included selections from the fifteenth chapter of First Corinthians and the fourteenth chapter of St. John, short prayers and a benediction.

Outside of members of the Wilson family, only members of the cabinet and their wives, the members of special committees from the senate and house, a few intimate friends and the mast. The White House grounds also present at the services.

While the services were in progress both houses of congress and all government departments were closed and all flags in the Capitol at half mast. The White House grounds also were closed to the public.

Immediately after the services the body was placed on a special train. It will be taken to Rome, Ga., the burial place of Mrs. Wilson's parents. It is understood here that during the trip through the south the people will pay respect by tolling church bells as the special train passes. Christ church in Alexandria, Va., which George Washington attended, has decided on this tribute.

The members of the family were taken to the railroad station soon after the services, the train leaving for Rome at 4:35 o'clock, arriving at Atlanta, Ga., at noon Tuesday and at Rome at 2:30 o'clock. There is a special car for flowers.

PRISON REFORM WORKER NOW MAKING HOME HERE

J. M. Kinney, the Man Who Started Great Reform in Michigan State Prison—Gives Key to His Success—Only Warden Prisoners in Big Prison Ever Loved—Only One Man Sent to Whipping Post in Year.

The man who established the first great reform in the Michigan State Prison—who believes that "a man is a man for a fault and a' that"—is now making his home in Washington. He is Mr. J. M. Kinney, who during the past few years has been engaged in treating decaying and diseased trees. Mr. Kinney is also a veteran of the great civil war,

MR. J. M. KINNEY,
First Reform Warden of Michigan Penitentiary.

and as a result of his varied experiences is a most interesting conversationalist, but makes no boast of his achievements.

The Michigan state prison was the second in the United States to establish an honor system among her convicts. New York was the first.

Mr. Kinney went to the Michigan prison as a guard. This was in 1895 and for two years he filled the position of guard, making a careful study of prison life.

At the end of two years he was appointed deputy warden under Warden Charles Harley, taking the appointment with the understanding that he himself would have control of the prison which had long held a reputation for brutality and inhumanity, shocking in the extreme.

When Deputy Warden Kinney took charge of the men he at once established an "honor system," and during the one year he was in charge only one man went to the whipping post.

The relation between Deputy Warden and the prisoners was very close, and within a short time after he had taken charge, there was not a man in the prison who would not do the bidding of the man they loved and who had charge of them. Kindness and firmness were used, while brutality was relegated to the past.

The reform was the wonder of the

UNITED STATES MEANS BUSINESS

By Associated Press.

New York, Aug. 10.—United States customs officials today sealed up the wireless apparatus of all vessels in the harbor flying the flag of the warring European powers. This action follows the censorship placed upon wireless stations along the coast to enforce the neutrality of the United States.

SUPT. CROW SPENDS DAY IN THIS CITY

Supt. Crow, of the Xenia workhouse spent Saturday in this city renewing acquaintance with old friends. This is Supt. Crow's native city and county, and he has a very warm spot in his heart for Fayette and her citizens.

Supt. Crow states that at the present time he has 54 prisoners in the Xenia workhouse, and that their time is devoted entirely to the manufacture of brooms.

Mr. Crow has had much experience with prisoners, and is regarded as one of the best workhouse keepers in the state.

WATER POLO TEAMS FORMING

Physical Director J. W. McClung of the Y. M. C. A., is engaged in the formation of two separate water polo teams in Washington C. H. to do battle for honors in the Y. M. C. A. natatorium on South Temple street.

Seven men to a team are required. As the season is advanced quick work will be necessary both in the formation and drilling of the teams if there are to be any matches of consequence during this summer. Quite a number have already enlisted their applications which are being received by Mr. McClung at the Y. M. C. A.

ANNUAL SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

The annual Sunday school picnic of the Civil War, will be held in the Frank Bush grove, one mile west of Jeffersonville, Thursday of this week.

Music will be furnished by band, and Rev. F. E. Ross will deliver an address.

Congressman S. D. Fess will speak on some timely topic.

Everyone is urged to attend the picnic and enjoy the day, and present indications are that the largest attendance in the history of Jefferson township Sunday school picnics, will result.

AGED CITIZEN FALLS ON LAWN

Mr. David Backenstoe, veteran of the Civil War, gave way under a fainting spell while on the court house lawn, Monday afternoon, and for a time it was feared he would not recover.

However, medical aid was summoned and the man soon revived so that he could be removed from the court house lawn to his home.

MAY ASK FOR RESALE OF THE HAYS ESTATE

A motion to set aside the sale of the Hays estate of 144 acres, sold at sheriff's sale Saturday, is now being considered, the grounds being that owing to a report having gotten out that the title to the land was not clear, the land did not sell properly. Attorneys claim the title to the land is without flaw. The land brought considerably less than its appraised value.

MANY FARM HANDS LOOK FOR PLACES

At the present time there is a great demand for places on the part of farm hands, particularly men with small families seeking such a position.

This is borne out by scores of replies to a classified ad from a Fayette land owner who wanted a good farm hand. Replies have poured in from all points in the county, and from adjoining counties. There is apparently no end to the demand for a change among farm hands with small families.

WAR TAX PLANNED

Washington, August 10.—Congress will be held here to pass a war revenue bill to make up for the loss of revenue caused by the stopping of imports from Europe.

This statement was positively made by Senator Kern, Democratic leader of the Senate.

Several forms of special taxation are under consideration and were discussed Saturday night at an informal conference of Democratic members of the Ways and Means committee. One plan which meets with much favor is to increase the tax on beer 50 cents a barrel. This increase would bring in about $32,500,000 a year. Another suggestion is a stamp tax on deeds, bills of lading, proprietary medicines, etc., similar to the Spanish war tax. Still another suggestion is to levy a special tax on theater tickets, ranging from 2 cents to 5 cents per ticket. This, it is estimated, would add about $5,000,000 a year to Uncle Sam's income.

There is talk of increasing the taxes on whisky and tobacco, but as they are already heavily burdened it is possible they may escape this infliction.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

by Victoria Temple No. 37, Ladies of the Golden Eagle.

Whereas, Through the providence of God we are called to mourn the loss of our companion, Past Templar Emma Smith, and while we deeply mourn her removal from our midst, we humbly submit to the God who giveth and the God who taketh away.

Never again shall we feel her warm handshake or receive her friendly greeting at our temple portal. She awaits us at the heavenly portal at the right hand of Him who said, "Well done thou good and faithful servant. Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

We feel that in her demise we lost a true companion and sister; her family, a loving wife and mother; her neighbors, a true neighbor indeed. Therefore, be it

RIGHT ON THE JOB.

Editor Daily Herald:

It has occurred to me that even an editor might welcome a kind word, especially when well deserved. For that reason I am in this manner expressing my appreciation of the splendid news service The Daily Herald is furnishing us. I refer particularly to the Associated Press accounts of each day's events in the European war.

I have observed for several days that The Herald has published all the essential news of the big war and a comparison reveals the interesting fact that the big city morning papers carry exactly the same war dispatches you published the night before. Of course, the difference of six or eight hours in time between Europe and America gives you this advantage, but that fact does not detract from the credit due you for the splendid enterprise shown by your present news service.

Yours truly,

Ladies and Gentlemen Attention

I am going to New York for sole purpose of procuring the latest styles from the fashion folks of the big city, but when I return, we will be in about two weeks, the New Yorkers will not have anything anyone in this town, because I bring with me the latest fashions of the new season. My prices will be the same as they have been in the past.

Upon my return from the big city I hope to see all my old patrons also new ones, and I will give them just as good values in the future as I have in the past.
